25th CPSU Congress and the 4th CPV Congress and discussed cardinal questions of the further development of the traditional ties between the CPSU and the CPV the USSR and the SRV. It was noted with satisfaction that the relations of fraternal friendship and all-round co-operation between the Soviet and Vietnamese peoples developed successfully both in the hard years of the heroic struggle against imperialist aggression and in the years of rehabilitation and socialist construction in the SRV. There are all prerequisites for the further broadening and deepening of Soviet-Vietnamese co-operation in all fields, and the strengthening of internationalist ties between the CPSU and the CPV.

A number of international problems were thoroughly examined in the course of the talks. The Sides expressed their concern over the negative aspects in the development of the international situation, particularly in the Far East and South-east Asia. The Sides shared the view that in these circumstances the policy of the fraternal socialist countries of repulsing aggressive designs and countering the efforts to subject independent states to crude pressure, a policy of persistently working for detente and an improvement in the international situation, is the only correct and well-grounded one.

SPEECH BY COMRADE L. I. BREZHNEV

Dear Comrade Le Duan,

Dear Comrade Pham Van Dong

Esteemed members of the Party and Government delegation of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

Comrades and friends

We are sincerely glad to see as guests of our country the Party and Government delegation of fraternal Vietnam headed by the esteemed leaders of the Vietnamese people and our dear friends Comrades Le Duan and Pham Van Dong

We met with the leaders of Vietnam in the hard years of the heroic struggle of the Vietnamese people against American aggression We also met after your historic victory over the aggressor and his henchmen when your country faced the tasks of peaceful construction And each time we found a common language in the interests of the peoples of both countries and the cause of peace and socialism

I have said it before and repeat it now for Soviet Communists solidarity with Vietnam is the bidding of the heart and reason Soviet-Vietnamese friendship rests on a community of interests and aims and on the solid foundation of Marxism-Leninism and socialist internationalism

At the present complicated moment when the policy of the Chinese leadership has created new considerable difficulties for socialist construction on Vietnamese soil the strength of our friendship the strength of the solidarity of the countries of the socialist community are of special significance

We are sure that with the assistance and support of all fraternal peoples the Vietnamese people will surmount the present difficulties too, that under the guidance of its Communist Party it will accomplish the tasks set by the 4th Congress of the Vietnamese Communists and will build a strong and prosperous socialist state

These past days we conducted a broad exchange of views with the Vietnamese comrades on all the topical problems of our relations and major international issues We reached complete mutual understanding and once again convinced ourselves that we share common assessments and approaches

As a result of the talks we have just signed a document of great historic significance in the full sense of the word—the Treaty of Friendship and Co-operation Between the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

What is the purpose of this Treaty and what are its salient features?

Above all it is designed to promote the interests of the peaceful constructive labour of our peoples the interests of socialist and communist construction in our countries This is the main point

The Treaty is designed to further strengthen and deepen the fraternal friendship of the peoples of our countries By acting together we become stronger in the political economic and other spheres of public life

Our Treaty is an expression of the genuine comradeship that unites the fraternal countries of socialism It continues the fine traditions of the countries of the socialist community which have put their relations on a solid contractual basis It is in the interests of all fraternal countries and strengthens their international positions

By this Treaty the Soviet Union and Vietnam confirm the basic trend of their foreign policy We are for stronger peace in Asia and the whole world for just and equitable international relations

The Soviet-Vietnamese Treaty has been concluded by two equal independent and peace-loving states And not a single line in it imposes somebody's will on anyone or encroaches upon the interests of a third country

I am certain that all those who want lasting peace will welcome the news of the conclusion of a Soviet-Vietnamese Treaty of Friendship and Co-operation

At the same time it can be expected that it will not be to the taste of those who regard the friendship between the USSR and Vietnam with displeasure and who place their stakes on heightening tensions and disuniting the socialist countries

But the Treaty has already become a political reality And whether they like it or not this reality will have to be reckoned with

Dear comrades

We look to the future with optimism and confidence Boundless horizons are open to the peoples of our countries equal members of the mighty family of the socialist community The great revolutionary leaders—Vladimir Ilyich Lenin in Soviet Russia and Ho Chi Minh in Vietnam—built the foundations of our states, gave decisive impulses to their development and mapped out our course. We can proudly say that we are faithfully following this course.

Permit me to propose a toast

- To the firm and inviolable friendship of the Soviet Union and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam!
- To lasting peace and security in the world!
- To the heroic Vietnamese people!
- To the health and successes of Comrades Le Duan, Pham Van Dong and all our Vietnamese friends!

SPEECH BY COMRADE LE DUAN

Esteemed Comrade L. I. Brezhnev,
Esteemed Comrades A. N. Kosygin and M. A. Suslov, Esteemed leaders of the Communist Party and the Soviet Government,

The delegation of the Communist Party of Vietnam and the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam is infinitely glad to be in the glorious Land of the Soviets, the homeland of great Lenin.

To begin with, I should like to express our sincere feelings of profound respect for and convey our warmest greetings to the great friend of the Vietnamese people, esteemed Comrade L. I. Brezhnev to the leaders of the Communist Party and the Soviet Government, to all Soviet Communists and the fraternal Soviet people. Permit me to sincerely thank you and the people of Moscow for the stately and cordial welcome accorded our delegation.

For more than 60 years the heroic Soviet people, under the sagacious guidance of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and at the cost of great sacrifices, has been fulfilling its difficult internationalist duty, and performing great and unprecedented feats arousing the admiration of the peoples of the world By their persistent revolutionary struggle and creative labour the Soviet people were the first in history to pave the way to socialism turn their homeland into a mighty socialist power and make great gains in the creation of the material and technical basis of communism—the glorious dream of mankind Faithful to Lenin's behests the Soviet Union has helped and continues to help the revolutionary struggle of the peoples and frustrates imperialist war-mongering schemes thus actively performing the important mission of a reliable mainstay of peace a sturdy bulwark and the hope of revolutionary and progressive forces throughout the world

The Vietnamese people are fully aware that the revolutionary victories scored under the leadership of the Communist Party of Vietnam which was founded and steered by Comrade Ho Chi Minh are not only a result of his own efforts, but also a product of the contemporary era as a whole Their wellspring is the great victory of the October Revolution, and they are inseparably connected with the heroic feat of the Soviet people in the war against fascism and with the formation of the world socialist system Without the tremendous transformations which have been effected in Lenin's homeland without the lofty feat of the Soviet people who sacrificed the lives of tens of millions of its sons, without the grief of their mothers, and without the assistance rendered in the spirit of proletarian internationalism by the world's first socialist country the profound changes which have taken place before our eyes could not have taken place and such a small country as Vietnam would have been unable to achieve victory over the biggest of the imperialist predators and enter the era of independence freedom and socialism In our day national independence must be inalienably linked with socialism and socialism alone ensures genuine respect and guarantees the independence and the freedom of peoples Generation after generation the Vietnamese people will always remember all that the Soviet Union had done for the Vietnamese revolution and will never forget L I Brezhnev's heartfelt words 'For Soviet Communists solidarity with Vietnam is the bidding of the heart and reason

Comrades

The superiority of the combined might of the main revolutionary forces of our epoch over imperialism and reaction enables these forces to make steady progress and score great victories

In their efforts to inhibit this trend of events imperialism and the forces of reaction are doing their utmost to halt history's onward march. Typical in this respect are the all-out efforts of the reactionary group in Peking's ruling circles to marshal forces and form a new alliance with imperialism and fascist hangers-on, an alliance spearheaded against the socialist system and the movement for national independence and designed to split the working class and undermine its struggle, handicap the process of detente and wreck the cause of world peace.

But the difficulties and contradictions plaguing imperialism and reaction doom any reactionary alliance, any barbarian force to failure in the face of the growing might and militant solidarity of the forces of socialism, national independence, democracy and peace and the vigilance of the working and all honest people in the world.

Just over three years have passed since the Vietnamese people enthusiastically launched the rehabilitation of the economy and peaceful construction in keeping with the guidelines of the 4th Congress of the Communist Party of Vietnam. While Vietnam's achievements and the bright future which lies open before it fill the Vietnamese people and our brothers and friends with joy, they arouse anger in the camp of imperialist reaction. It regards the rise and consolidation of a peaceful, independent, united and socialist Vietnam which pursues an independent sovereign course and the correct policy of international solidarity as a serious obstacle to its expansionist chauvinistic plans and great-power hegemonism in Southeast Asia in the first place. It pursues a frantically hostile policy towards our country and undermines the traditional friendship between the Vietnamese people and the peoples of the neighbouring countries.

In these circumstances a new historical task confronts our people—that of making every effort to build socialism and simultaneously to safeguard peace and independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity of our country with the utmost determination

The Vietnamese people have encountered fresh difficulties but nothing can prevent them from moving forward towards victory because our strength lies in our monolithic unity, traditions of national staunchness and our firm belief in the truth that 'nothing is dearer than freedom and independence', because we are fighting for a just cause which is consistent with the course of history and enjoy the sympathy and support of the Soviet Union of all fraternal socialist states and the governments and peoples of countries which are struggling for peace and justice and the support of the whole of progressive mankind

Permit me on behalf of the Communist Party and the Government of Vietnam and of the Vietnamese people to express warm gratitude to Comrade L. I. Brezhnev, the CC CPSU, the Government and the people of the Soviet Union for their invariable and determined support for the Vietnamese people in their efforts to build socialism and defend the independence of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam

Our Party and Government delegation has brought with it the warm feelings of the 50 million population of the SRV which shares your joy and pride, and which together with the Soviet Communists and all Soviet people solemnly observes the great holiday, the anniversary of the October Revolution the greatest and the most consistent revolution in the history of mankind Under the leadership of brilliant Lenin and the proletarian party of a new type which he created and led the once impoverished and backward Russia turned into the world's mightiest socialist power And today having adopted a new Constitution, it is confidently building communism and is a source of great experience for other peoples in the creation of a new system and new economy and in the moulding of a new man, a man of a socialist society

In these festive days we have had other glad tidings—after spending 140 days in outer space, Comrades Kovalenok and Ivanchenkov have safely returned to earth This is a new magnificent victory of the Soviet Union in the exploration and development of outer space

Progressive humanity will be eternally grateful to the October Revolution which awakened the oppressed and exploited peoples grateful to the Soviet Union which saved the world from the fascist plague and created conditions for the rise and development of the world socialist system, for many colonial peoples to win the right to determine their own future for an abrupt growth of the role played by the three revolutionary currents of our times

Undoubtedly the living experience of world revolutionary development from October 1917 to our day more and more vividly demonstrates the greatness of the October Revolution and its profound influence

Permit me on behalf of the CC CPV the SRV Government and the entire Vietnamese people to convey our warmest and heartfelt greetings to the CC CPSU, the Government and all the people of the Soviet Union to the heroic working class, the glorious collective-farm peasantry and the working Soviet intelligentsia

Immediately after the October Revolution Comrade Ho Chi Minh the first Vietnamese Communist to visit the homeland of great Lenin saw that the road to victory in the struggle of the Vietnamese people was blazed by the Great October Socialist Revolution

At present the Vietnamese people are making every effort to implement the decisions of the 4th Congress of the Communist Party of Vietnam, said Comrade Pham Van Dong They are building a mighty prosperous and happy socialist Vietnam and are continuing to contribute to the revolutionary cause of the peoples of the world

The Vietnamese people are deeply aware that all the gains of their revolution are inseparably connected with the victory of the October Revolution with the momentous historical events taking place on Soviet soil and with the continual development of the world revolutionary process The greater our people's pride in their enormous revolutionary achievements the more reason they have to be proud of Vietnamese-Soviet friendship a glowing friendship a model friendship Today for every Vietnamese just as for all the succeeding generations of Vietnamese the words 'Soviet Union' will be a permanent source of inspiration and confidence in the victory of our revolutionary cause

After the great victory in the spring of 1975 our people are making every effort to overcome the dire consequences of neo-colonialism and the thirty years aggressive war, to rehabilitate and develop the economy and the country in accordance with the decisions of the 4th Congress of the CPV

Our people have made substantial headway in the past three and a half years But while our gains gladden us and our friends throughout the world the reactionary Peking grouping in collusion with the forces of imperialism is frenziedly counteracting the peaceful construction in which our people are engaged They regard the formation of an independent prosperous and happy socialist Vietnam which occupies its rightful international positions in Southeast Asia and the whole world as an obstacle to their expansionist and chauvinistic designs of great-power hegemonism

Under these circumstances new historical tasks confronted our people to continue building socialism in the whole country and simultaneously protect our socialist homeland help strengthen the forces of socialism fulfil their duty to the world revolution, and safeguard the purity of Marxism-Leninism

Developing traditions of national fortitude the people of Vietnam are waging a determined and just struggle and are fully confident of victory for they have unbending will and are monolithic as never before for they are led by a steeled and tested Marxist-Leninist Party for we have the great and sincere support and assistance of the Soviet Union and other fraternal socialist countries for we have the sympathy of the governments and peoples that are fighting for peace and justice throughout the world

The Communist Party of Vietnam the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam and the Vietnamese people are determined to do their utmost to fully implement the signed documents and make a worthy contribution to the cause of defending and building socialism and communism in our countries As they carry out the behests of our never to be forgotten President Ho Chi Minh our Party and our Government assert that they will continue to devote all their strength to cultivating a feeling of respect for Vietnamese-Soviet relations in our Communists and all Vietnamese people, so that these traditionally splendid relations and firm ties of friendship should blossom and strengthen over the centuries

CLOSE FRIENDSHIP AND CO-OPERATION

Statement by Comrade Pham Van Dong on Soviet Television

The anniversary of the October Revolution is a great holiday of the fraternal peoples living in a single family—the Soviet Union—a great holiday of all progressive mankind, said Pham Van Dong Member of the Politbureau of the CC CPV and Prime Minister of the SRV. The interview with Prime Minister was broadcast over Central Television of the Soviet Union on November 8. On behalf of the Party and Government delegation of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam Comrade Pham Van Dong wished the fraternal Soviet people, the CPSU and its Central Committee headed by Comrade L. I. Brezhnev fresh and even more impressive successes in implementing the decisions of the 25th CPSU Congress and further progress in communist construction, and to contribute most effectively to the struggle of the peoples of the world for peace, national independence, democracy and socialism.

The foreign policy of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam, noted Pham Van Dong, is a policy of peace, friendship and broad international co-operation. Being a socialist country, Vietnam is strengthening relations of friendship and all-round co-operation with the Soviet Union and other fraternal socialist countries in every way. This policy helps to promote peaceful construction and protect the peaceful labour and happy life of the Vietnamese people.

Therein lies the basic significance of the Treaty of Friendship and Co-operation signed the other day by the Socialist Republic of Vietnam and the Soviet Union. The Vietnamese people enthusiastically welcome this exceptionally important event. These days the peoples of the socialist countries and progressive world public likewise warmly welcome the conclusion of the Treaty. Life demonstrates more and more convincingly that the Treaty effectively serves the cause of peace, friendship and international co-operation and is consistent with the interests of the peoples of Vietnam and the Soviet Union; that it makes for stronger peace and stability in Southeast Asia and meets the aspirations of the peace-loving peoples of the world.

The official friendly visit to the Soviet Union of the Party and Government delegation of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam said Pham Van Dong is indeed a vivid manifestation of the close friendship linking the peoples of the fraternal socialist countries. These model relations based on Marxism-Leninism and proletarian internationalism are steadily developing and strengthening in the course of the joint struggle of the peoples of our countries for common ideals—socialism and communism.

During the past 50 years or so, the Vietnamese people, following the path charted by the October Revolution and guided by the Communist Party of Vietnam which was founded and organisationally shaped by President Ho Chi Minh victoriously accomplished the August Revolution, established the first workers and peasants state in Southeast Asia, administered a succession of defeats upon the French colonialists and American imperialists, opened a new era in the history of their beloved homeland—the era of independence, unity and socialism. At the same time the Vietnamese people strive to contribute to the revolutionary cause of the peoples of the world. The Vietnamese people are fully aware that each step forward and each victory which they score along this road are directly connected with the great gains and brilliant exploits of the Soviet people and with growing might of the world's revolutionary forces.

Our delegation said Pham Van Dong in conclusion is very happy to be in the Soviet Union, the home of the October Revolution and the country of Vladimir Ilyich Lenin. On this great holiday we share a feeling of great pride with our Soviet brothers. We are very glad to see with our own eyes the magnificent successes of the Soviet people in fulfilling the tasks of the tenth five-year plan, the five-year plan of quality and efficiency.
